

Full Circle October 5th 2019 Minutes at Peace Lutheran Church 9am

Attendees: Jennifer Sinkula, Mary Pasch, Sue Suring, Nancy Schwenke, Sandy Lindstrom, and Debra Sanchez

Devotion: Thank you Jennifer Sinkula for the devotion on “Spirit – Mind- Body: Nothing happens in isolation” (1st Corinthians 12:12-26). November-Cami Sommers, December-Renee Stieg

Caring card ministry: Thank you Renee Stieg for sending out 59 cards for the Month of September

Sewing for Smiles: Sue Suring report 24 dresses and 8 bags in September and in October there were dresses and bags. Thank you to everyone who went above and beyond and made 100's of dresses this year for children in need. Days for girls still have volunteer opportunities which was reported as an awesome volunteer event. If anyone is going on a missions trip or you know children in need of dresses or bags please contact Sue Suring at suringsue@yahoo.com.

Community Shelter Meals: Debbie will update. We will look into the end of the month.

Grocery Challenge Update: We will continue to count the groceries weekly and divide them into to equal bags with the amount on the bag and then mark on the poster to meet our long term goal of 5000 groceries with using the thermometer poster at all future grocery challenge events. Goes until October 20th. We will pack up the groceries on October 21st and deliver to Pulaski. Who would like to deliver to The Giving Tree? Nancy Schwenke will pack up groceries on the 13th to get them organized and then we will send out an email to do the final pack on October 21st and deliver them that week.

Health Fair: October 6th 9am til Noon. Ladies tea, 10 year video, Coats for Kids, Sewing for smiles, Full Circle flyer from Sandy) Sue Suring and Jennifer Sinkula will man the table.

Ladies Tea: Date- April 18th. Next month we will decide on a theme. Bring your ideas, we would love to hear them.

Coats for Kids: Debbie set a box out which will be set up on Sunday after the health fair. Coats will be collected until October 27th.

Salvation Army counting money for the Kettle Campaign: Debbie will get 2 or 3 Friday nights to do a volunteer and dinner night.

Giving Tree Christmas Store: Renee Stieg contacted Kourtney from the Giving Tree and has an update of the needs of volunteering. Who would like to set up the tree, deliver the gifts and/or advertise? If we divide and conquer that would work great. We will have all gifts dropped off at Church by December 1st and have someone deliver them by December 3rd.

Ring bells as a Full Circle Group: A new idea for a 2-3 hour spot with ringing bells and wearing Santa hats and candy canes as a full circle group at Super Ron's. Who would like to organize this by setting up a date, time and send out an email on who would like to assist?

Future Ideas: Shelter meal in January, Days for Girls and making cards for caring card ministry at our next meeting (bring anything to decorate cards).

Our next meeting will be November 2nd 2019 Polish Chic-N Coffee, Gifts and Bistro 1146 Mountain Bay Dr. Pulaski, WI 54162
