

Full Circle December 7, 2019 Minutes
at Julie's Café and Catering 2130 Velp Ave, Green Bay, WI 54303 @ 9:00 a.m.

Attendance: Mary Pasch, Debbie Sanchez, Linda Will, Kay Johnson, Kathy Knutson, Renee Stieg, Sandy Lindstrom, Sue Suring, Jennifer Sinkula, Sandy Nordman and granddaughters; Mimi (age 7) and Esme (age 3).

Devotion: December-Renee Stieg (from One World, One Heart) Reminders of what we need to do more of to get more out of life; example-“we need to observe more and realize that we are not so different from others.” What we notice and what we give comes back tenfold to us to enrich our own lives.

Caring card ministry: Renee sent out 24 in November including to veterans for Veteran's Day.

Sewing for Smiles: Sue dropped off 14 bags at WellSpring. She will check back to see if they need more. About 14 dresses are being sent to Uganda with a mailing that is going there through another organization. We sent $100 to Haiti for their Christmas celebrations.

Community Shelter Meals: Debbie will check back to confirm that we are planning to do the Friday January 17th evening meal—preparing on Friday starts at 2:30 with serving at 5:00. We will also plan to make and serve the lunch on Saturday March 7th with our Full Circle meeting in between preparing and serving.

April 25th, 2020 Ladies Tea: Theme: Possibili-Tea- “All Things are Possible with God”. Bring your ideas for presentations: CASA, Days for Girls, any more? We will go over more details in January. Idea: collect items for CASA and Days for Girls.

Days for Girls: Jennifer and Linda will be in charge of setting up a Days for Girls event at our church. They will ask if we can get a speaker at the tea and will schedule an event after the tea.

Salvation Army counting money for the Kettle Campaign: The Kroc Center Wednesday December 4th and Friday December 13th. December 4th went very well. There is still an opening for someone to help on the 13th. Debbie Sanchez is the contact person Giving Tree Christmas Store: Linda Will and Sue Suring brought the donations to the Giving Tree. Our tree is still up and could now be reset to receive Christmas donations for the N.E.W. Community Shelter. Renee will call Abby to see what is needed.

Ring bells as a Full Circle Group: Kay organized this for Thursday December 12th at Super Ron's. She will resend the email with the schedule on Tuesday December 10th.

Speaker for February: Pam Schuelke and Julie Aderhold, Executive Director of Ecumenical Partnership for Housing, would like to present in February on a housing project.

Life and Growth update: More community activities and more advertising of the activities to get people involved is needed.

Grocery Challenge is coming up—middle of January to middle of February. We will do the snowman again.

Our next meeting will be January 4th 2020
Location - New Perspectives, 2790 Elm Tree Hill in Howard, at 9:00 a.m. Linda will call to confirm.
